“Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my Glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.” John 17:24 ESV

In his high priestly prayer, Jesus prays for his disciples and future followers. Jesus prayed that his followers would be unified, sanctified and witnesses to the world of unbelievers, however he didn't stop with that. He also prayed that we would one day be with him to take part in his glory and inheritance. We can place our hope in the promise of this passage. We know that Jesus only prayed for the will of his Father and was willing to do whatever the Father required of him, even to the point of death. We, his followers, will one day be at his side in Heaven.
