“Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.” Prv. 3:9,10 ESV

God speaks to His people through out His word about giving to Him and others. In the Old Testament it was through the tithes and offerings. In the New Testament it is in the form of gifts to the church and needy. No matter what our financial situation is we are to give the first portion back to God, because the sum of all we have is actually His anyway. However, God is so great and generous that he promises to honor our obedience by multiplying our gifts back to us.
