“And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?” Mt. 6:28-30 ESV

Many times we find ourselves complaining about our circumstances or at least silently worrying about what will happen tomorrow at work, school or home. Jesus tells us that this is a complete waste of time. In the next few verses following this passage, Jesus says not to be anxious for tomorrow, because it will be anxious for itself. Jesus says that because God takes care of the little things, He will take grater care of the prize of His creation. We are His greatest possession.
