“Now the Lord said to Abram, ‘Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.’” Gen. 12:1-3 ESV

Abram had a choice to make. He could either believe the words of a God he did not know and strike out on the adventure of a life time or he could stay in his comfortable surroundings. Thankfully, Abram chose to follow God and God honored Abraham’s faithfulness. God did all that he promised in a way that Abraham could have never expected. He took Abraham’s children into a strange land, grew them into a mighty nation in the bonds of slavery, led them through the wilderness into the Promised Land, and provided a Savior for all of mankind. God held true to His every word.
