“When Lamech had lived 182 years, he fathered a son and called him Noah, saying, ‘Out of the ground that the Lord has cursed this one shall bring us relief from our work and from the painful toil of our hands.’” Gen. 5:28-29 ESV

When Noah was born, his father made a rather prophetic proclamation. The statement sounds like something that related to the rather hard farming life, however God was going to use his son to save the human race from itself. He was to be a symbol of the savior to come. God saw that the world had turned extremely wicked and He had resolved to destroy it. However, God remembered His promise to Abraham and created in Noah a way to carry on the seed line of Christ, preserving His promise.
