

“Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to the springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.” Rev. 7:15-17 ESV

Paul said to keep your eye on the prize, to finish the race, that to live is Christ and to die is gain. It is a wonderful thing to know without a doubt that the future is set for those who follow Christ. He will be king and we will be his people. No more pain, no more sorrow, no more dying, for on the day we leave this world we awake new. We open our eyes to a world beyond conception, a world where we will be held tightly in the arms that bore up the weight of our sins, a world where there will be no more condemnation, a world of pure love.
